FATAL CRASH, Robert Rowland, age 17, and Jack Rivett, 41, were instantly killed about 9 o'clock Friday morning when the westbound Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train demolished the pick up truck in which they were riding at a crossing on the Rouse Hospital farm at Youngsville. The trainmen saw the truck approach the open crossing, but before realizing the driver was making no effort to stop the collision occurred. The victims were thrown clear of the wreckage, as indicated in the photo.

Young Rowland was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Rowland, who operate Rouse Hospital, Rivett, a former borough police officer and believed driver of the truck, was an employee at the hospital.

WORKMEN were called to this scene early Friday morning after a Pennsylvania Railroad freight jumped the tracks about nine miles west of Warren along the river road between Irvine and Tidioute. Three cars were derailed.

Had the jump been to the right, it would have been cars in the drink.

Two seniors at Warren high school have reached the finals of the 1958-59 National Merit Scholarship Program and have been awarded Certificates of Merit, according to Principal Joseph Passaro.

Diane Samuelson and Bruce Africa have received the certificates, which attest to their high academic promise. Another recipient of the award is John Urbaitis, who was advanced past his senior year at Warren High and is now a freshman at Allegheny College.

The seniors distinguished themselves by their high scores on the two college aptitude tests used in the National Merit Scholarship competition. About six-tenths of one per cent of the seniors in each state received the awards. A national total of 10,000 students were honored.

INDIAN DAM POLICY

Many may be a bit confused about the intentions of the Seneca Indians in their court actions concerning the proposed Allegheny river dam. If we understand their appeal, they do not contend that the government has no right to take the land. That obviously can be done if the results will benefit the public.

They are claiming that the law which calls for the construction of the dam did not intend that the Indians give up their land. Thus, if they win this point, the law must be amended or rewritten.

Such a stalling action obviously can have two effects. Either it can open up the law and perhaps result in study that will substitute another project, and in the course of which many more years will pass before anything is done, or the entire procedure will emphasize the tremendous value of this land when the time comes for determining its price.

AIR POLLUTION LAW

Now that the state is doing a bit about enforcing its clean streams law we are interested in the current effort to pass a law which will require clean air in our commonwealth. In a major industrial and a heavily traveled state this can serve as a major contribution to public health.

There is little doubt that we are on the brink of uncovering the danger of unclean air. This will range from the inhalation of tobacco smoke to the breathing of industrially sooted air.

Dr. Charles L. Wilbar, state health secretary, calls it the most important legislation to be considered this session, and claims the problem is growing. No county is without some type of air pollution, and air is the only carrier not controlled in Pennsylvania. Food, milk, and water purification is required by law.

Dr. Wilbar says 200 pounds of solids are released into the atmosphere from each ton of coal burned. The ton of coal also produces forty pounds of sulphur dioxide which irritates the respiratory tract, corrodes metal, and attacks paint.

A hundred pounds of burned fuel oil produces thirty pounds of sulphur dioxide, and automobiles produce seventeen pounds for every one thousand gallons of gasoline they consume.

The law calls for a pollution commission which will send engineers into areas where there are complaints. Public hearings will be held and rules established for the area. Violations will call for fines ranging from $25 to $1,000.

Local areas can pass their own regulations if they do not conflict with the state's bill.

BLUE SHIELD ADDS OUT-PATIENT

Diagnostic services, including x-rays, basal metabolism tests, and other examinations given in a hospital to those who may not be patients now can be covered with a Blue Shield policy. Blue Cross will pay the bills rendered by the hospital and Blue Shield will take care of those outside the hospital and billed by the doctor.

WATCH YOUR LANGUAGE

Civil service jobs come rolling across our desk daily and often we offer you a sample list of the current openings. Occasionally one pops up which demands specialization and suggests the value of education.

The government now is looking for those who are versed in foreign languages, from Amharic to Vietnamese, but including the standards, French, German, Polish, or you name them. If you can write stories or edit copy in any other language than your own there may be a job for you to help with the international information program by way of radio, television, and foreign language publications.

The pay for writers and editors starts in the range from $4,980 to $9,890. Radio adapters, $4,040 to $7,030. Radio announcers receive $4,040 to $5,985. Radio producers are paid $4,980 to $8,330.

Your post office may have Civil Service Announcement No. 186 which tells you the particulars. Or you can write the U.S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D.C.

JESSE O. GIBSON, an associate secretary of the Temperance Department of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists in Washington, D. C., will be guest speaker at the Inter-denominational Temperance Rally at 7:30 p. m. Sunday, March 1, in the Warren Seventh-day Adventist Church.

In addition to an address, Mr. Gibson will present a film to acquaint Warren area leaders with information about the cigarette-lung cancer relationship which is a matter of growing concern in medical circles.

All those interested in the Temperance Cause are invited.

Observations

By Bob Walsh

BOOKMOBILE IS NECESSARY PART OF MODERN SERVICE

If the Warren county residents who do not enjoy a library at their disposal, and there are 20,000 of them, are to have that situation remedied, a bookmobile will be a necessary part of the program. And if the 8,000 who have meager library facilities are to have those facilities strengthened, a bookmobile is the best way to accomplish it.

If a share of our county residents are confused by such statements, and the conflicting ones appearing in the daily, we wish to emphasize that the ideas expressed in this paper concerning the best of library service are not conceived in the editor's mind. In a specialized subject such as this we constantly refer to the opinions and experiences of professionals.

The extension of library service to the county by means of the Warren library cannot be done with present equipment. Proof of this may be found in the figures available in local records. These reveal that only 736 residents outside of Warren, and most of these live in neighboring townships, pay the dollar a year required to use the Warren books. And we have already revealed that 20,000 have no service in their area, and 8,000 have insufficient supplies of books.

This plainly proves that the bookmobile is not an antiquated means of solving this problem. It is the method needed today, as proved in states which are much more advanced than Pennsylvania in the library field. Bookmobiles are common efficient in areas where the most efficient service is found.

MANY MISUNDERSTAND

We believe the reason some people are opposed to the bookmobile idea is that they don't know what one is, and even if they do, they are misled concerning its intended use. Many believe that it will bring books to your door, like a milk wagon. This is not the truth.

A bookmobile is built along the lines of a bus, a bus without windows. Shelves are installed to carry books, just as they do in a library. There is a small desk and a card index system to keep books and readers in order.

The bookmobile visits small libraries, schools, and book stations. Its stops are scheduled and people may visit it for the purpose of obtaining books or to request one which will be brought on the next trip. It also will bring a supply of books to augment the local library's stock. And will pick up those it left on the last trip.

You need not be present when the bookmobile arrives in order to obtain a book. You may leave your request with the local librarian. However, there will be situations in which no local library is involved. In these cases it may be necessary to visit the bookmobile during its regular visit.

These details should be handled by a professional librarian who has worked in a bookmobile and has learned the hard way. Warren county should not put a green hand in such a vehicle and make numerous unnecessary errors. We want a demonstration that will prove or disprove the value of the system.

SMALL LIBRARIES IMPRACTICAL

The argument that small libraries can be given some of the money and be equipped to meet the need is specious. We believe all of us realize that the Carnegie people have had some experience in the library field. They have helped build many of them and naturally have much experience on which to base their opinions.

The Carnegie advice includes a warning against pouring money into small libraries. It says such expenditures are wasted. The small libraries must be coordinated with larger ones in a closely knit web. And there must be a modern means of communication and transportation to augment the limited supplies of books.

We used three issues of this paper to give you the full report of professional librarians who studied the state and Warren county. We suggest you take the word of these people before you listen to the limited opinions of publishers who know very little, if anything, about adequate library service.

If you do not have copies of these issues you can find them in the Warren library. The dates are November 27, 1958, December 4, 1958, and December 11, 1958.

TOMORROW WE FLY

We hope to see the connection between libraries become even more efficient. If the bookmobile could be a helicopter, much time would be saved and far more visits could be made. We favor any means of getting books to people in this day when enlightenment is so important and the Russians are stressing through their advance the limitations of our adult population.

It is not the intention of those proposing the bookmobile that it visit homes, but we would approve this enthusiastically. If people won't come to books, let's take them to the people. We believe it would be a very alert library promotion to visit the homes block by block and to sell people on books. Books that are available at no cost to them except the energy required to walk to the curb and have a peek.

Perhaps this should be done to those who have stopped taking books. Education should never cease and it is the job of every true librarian to see that it doesn't.

But we do not wish to confuse you. This is not the intent of those who are planning the new library service. The bookmobile will bring supplies of books to existing libraries and to new ones which will be created.

And it will be a gift from the state. If we do not get it, someone else will. And we will help pay for it.

The Warren daily seems to give little consideration to those living outside the borough. It would seem it is for a plan which will put county money in the Warren library cash register, but does not favor one which will yield full value to the small towns and rural areas for their tax money.

DEATH BLOW?

There are some enthusiastic backers of the library demonstration proposal who believe a recent Times Mirror editorial in which the bookmobile seemed to be the prime target, will be just the push needed to topple some politicians off their rather unenthusiastic stand. Some office-seekers are inclined to greatly fear the daily and will do nothing during a campaign to contradict it, even though their action may deny the vast majority of their county constituents a needed service, while Warren hoards over 70,000 volumes.

We seldom back a candidate. We deal in issues and let the candidates be measured as they handle those issues. Any candidate who runs away from this one in the face of so selfish and inane an editorial earns no help from the five Observers.

BUYERS' CORNER

PROOF AGAINST ALL

A really waterproof suit should be available soon. It also will be greaseproof. New uses of fluorocarbon are unlimited, ranging from bearings that do not require oil and already are used on one of the big three to the creation of surfaces so smooth they are smoother than ice. In fact ice won't form on them, thus making perfect ski wax, especially for plane skis in the arctic. Cooking utensils lined with it do not require grease to prevent food from sticking or baking to surface. (See the January issue of Popular Science.)

TOO FAST

A new car is being built that will sell for about $25,000 and will last a lifetime. It is called the Argonaut, and will have an aluminum body, corrosion-resistant parts, an American chassis and an Italian body.

Brass radiators cool both the water and oil. Brakes are air-cooled, frame is three times strength of standard makes, and it will do two hundred miles an hour.

At that speed they will not last a lifetime.

WINE MAKES IT

The Saturday Evening Post is expected to break its restrictions on liquor ads soon. The March 21 issue may have a two-page, two-color wine ad.

CLOSED CIRCUIT TV

New equipment now coming out will make closed TV practical for store window displays and for demonstrations. The projector does it in color.

REMINDING US

Every time we read of such progress in television we wonder if our new high school building will be wired for this advantage which will be coming to us soon. Conduits, through which wires of any kind can be drawn in the future are invaluable in all buildings today.

MONEY FOR EASTER

The district office of the Internal Revenue Service suggests that immediate filing of your income tax form should get you a refund by Easter. This of course assumes your form is perfect in detail.

NOT ENOUGH

Income tax forms not filed now may mean a long delay in refunds. The reason is that too few forms are being filed. The Pittsburgh office is equipped to handle 40,000 returns daily and is not getting them. This means there will be a pile-up in the late weeks.

NOT A CURE

The makers of Arthrycin have been charged with misrepresenting the preparation's effectiveness in permanently relieving severe pains of arthritis and rheumatism. Statements made in advertising are claimed to be in violation of the FTC Act.

The complaint cites such typical statements as: "Imagine suffering arthritis, rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago... deep-seated pains that throb and ache and sting... In just five days these stinging, crippling aches forgotten...."

The complaint charges that the 5-day plan will not result in permanent relief. The analgesic effect will not build up day after day. Only minor pains will be temporarily relieved.

INTEREST IN MAY PRIMARY ELECTION BUILDS; COURT ORDER CHANGES BORO VOTING DISTRICTS

Republicans Announcing; Democrats Are Quiet

While the May 19 Primary Election is nearly three months away, interest is commencing to build in many circles. Many Republicans have expressed their intentions, with races already started in some instances. The Democrats, on the other hand, have kept pretty quiet. They may have more to say after a meeting tonight.

Ralph Sires, Rep. incumbent, and Robert Ritchie, Rep., now treasurer, have both announced their candidacy in the Prothonotary race. Warren Burgess William E. Rice, Rep., tossed his hat in the ring when he said he'd seek the treasurer's job. John Salamon, Dem., is considering the same move but has not made up his mind. Register and Recorder Gurney Ball, Rep., will run again.

The battle for the sheriff's post is on. Deputy sheriff Don Allen, Jr., and Clayton Rhoades, Conewango twp. police officer, both GOP members, have announced. John Imperial, former Warren police officer, has expressed his intention to receive the Democratic nod.

Three Republicans have publicly stated they will run for the county commissioner nomination. They are Commissioner Blain Mead, Chris Yutze, of Sheffield, and Commissioner L. L. Johnson, Youngsville.

SCHOOL BOARD

Three members of the Warren Borough School Board and the Joint Committee of the area board see their terms expire at the end of the year and all will run again. They are President M. G. Keller, W. H. Cowden, and Dr. A. J. O'Connor. Those on the board with continuing terms are F. E. Kie-shauer, M. E. Jewell, W. S. Calderwood, J. R. Hanson.

WARREN BORO COUNCIL

The changing of the voting districts in Warren Borough, explained in another article on this page, calls for the two councilmen in each the first and second wards (now combined) to give up their offices at the end of this year. James C. Torrance, first, and W. Beyer Africa, second, were slated to go out of office. But joining them, although they normally would have two years to go, will be J. W. Newmaker and Warren E. Miller of the first and second respectively. Only two men are to be elected in the November General Election, one for two years and the other for four years.

Before the decision on the district changes Wednesday, Torrance and Africa had expressed interest. The other two had not been reached.

In the upper Fifth ward, now known as the Tenth, two councilmen will be elected on the same basis. It has been disclosed that Dr. Ross Bryan may run. He is out of town and could not be reached.

Both present Fifth ward councilmen reside in the lower or new Fifth, causing no problem. President Leon Laskaris' term expires. He will run again.

OTHER WARDS. Glen J. Patchen Rep., will run again in the Third; in the Fourth Peter J. Juliano, Dem., is indefinite about seeking a second term, but Gus Swick, Rep., and Victory Graziano, Dem., are sure they want it.

W. D. McElwain, appointed to replace the vacancy left by James Frantz in the Sixth, is giving it consideration. The Seventh ward's Dave Levine is calling it quits. The Republicans will run Robert S. Gibb, Jr. At the present A. L. Langdon says no in the Eighth and Bernard Hetem will not seek another in the Ninth. Both are Republicans. Ray A. Marti, Rep., will seek the nomination in the Ninth.

Running for the Republican nomination for Warren County Commissioner will be Chris Yutze, a life long resident of Sheffield township.

Mr. Yutze is a well known dairyman in this area, having operated the Yutze Dairy and worked as a salesman for Thatcher Manufacturing Co. More recently he has been employed by Walker Creamery Products as a fieldman.

During his business and farm career he served as vice president of the Sheffield School Board and has been active in veteran and civic affairs. He is a veteran of World War I.

County treasurer Robert L. Ritchie has announced he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Warren County prothonotary in the May 19 Primary election. The Warren resident took his present office in 1956, but under present law the treasurer may not run for a second term.

In 1928 Mr. Ritchie was appointed deputy sheriff under Sheriff Jefferson, and at the age of 24 in 1931 became sheriff. At present he is a vice chairman of the Republican Party.

He is seeking the GOP nomination over Ralph E. Sires, present prothonotary.

registration is about 12,330 and the Democrat, 6,089.

In Brief

TO TURKEY will go Admiral John Davidson, Warren native, who has enjoyed a successful career in the U.S. Navy. He will be participating in the training program which will assist Turkey in improving its living standard and its defenses.

$90,000 in Federal funds should be received for the Warren Sewage Disposal plant as a result of an inspection made here this week. The amount is part of a $250,000 grant from the government. About $4,000 remains to be received after a final inspection.

DAM TRIP OFF. Officials here planning to go to Washington today to meet with congressmen and senators in a pressure move to get the Kinzua Dam had their trip called off Wednesday. The session the delegations was to attend was closed to the citizenry due to an increased agenda.

ACCIDENT. Rose Sherwood, 74, of 1034 Spring st., sustained possible fractures of the skull and left collar bone after the car in which she was riding was involved in an accident at 5:34 p. m. Saturday at Beech and Fourth streets.

Walter A. Sherwood, same address, had driven onto Fourth off Beech. Clair S. Gage, Russell, proceeding on Fourth, was unable to stop, and hit the rear of Sherwood. Damage was estimated at $325.

BIDS for the new high school are scheduled for opening by the building and grounds committee March 4 and if possible will be considered and accepted at the March 9 meeting of the Warren Area Joint School Board.

TV VIEWERS on the North Warren tower are now receiving WKBW-TV of Buffalo, Ch. 7, in place of Ch. 2, WGR Buffalo. The change offers residents stations carrying all three major networks.

A CHARGE of assault with intent to maim was made against Karlos E. Abel, Laurel st., after a 7:30 p. m. shooting spree Saturday.

The incident started earlier in the day when John Flick, a renter from Abel, moved out to 1501 Pennsylvania ave., E. He had noticed an iron, which had been borrowed from a friend, missing and asked Abel about it. The latter claimed no knowledge of the iron. Throughout the day calls and visits both were made to the Abel residence and the iron's whereabouts without success.

That evening Flick, with a friend, Franklin Long, went to the house again. Abel was reported to have said he was going to get a gun. The two men fled to their car and Abel opened fire with two or three shots which struck the auto.

When arraigned Abel pleaded not guilty and was released on $2,000 property bail.

TWO KILLED IN WRECK. A west-bound Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train claimed two lives about 9 o'clock Friday morning when it demolished a truck that drove into its path at the Rouse Hospital crossing at Youngsville.

Victims of the crash were 17-year-old Bob Rowland, son of Rouse superintendent and Mrs. Robert Rowland, and Jack Rivett, 41, a former Warren police officer who was employed by the institution. The latter was believed to have been operating the vehicle.

The engineer stated he saw the truck approach the crossing from the main highway and that the train's whistle was blowing and the bell ringing. Upon realizing the truck was not going to stop, the engineer put the train into emergency. It was too late, however, as the engine broke the truck in half. Bodies of the two, who were killed instantly, were thrown clear of the wreckage.

There is about a quarter mile clearance in each direction from the crossing.

WEEK-END FIRES. An estimated $1,500 damage was reported from a fire which started in the basement of a Water st. home over the week end and found its way up to the second floor. Fire in the home of Mrs. Virginia Mangini, 324 Water, was caused from a frozen pipe thawing operation. A second floor apartment which also suffered damage was occupied by Mrs. Ethel Wilson.

A second break-out, believed to have been caused by defective wiring, happened at the Harry Drivas residence, at 203 Dartmouth st. Firemen held the loss to $300.

GETS C. OF C. POST. Samuel H. Hoffman has been appointed the new executive vice president of the Warren Area Chamber of Commerce effective the 23rd of next month. He has been an executive with the Monongahela chamber and will succeed Charles R. Tranter, who recently resigned the local post.

HONORED. Mary Corah, officer secretary of the Warren Co. Motor Club, was honored at a dinner last week and presented a 30-year lapel button.

WAVED EXTRADITION. Robert Brightman, who was picked up by Corry State Police near Bear Lake last week as he awaited the chance to take another man's life, waved extradition in county court Friday and was bound over to Chautauqua Co., New York, officials. He was wanted there for two armed robberies in Jamestown and Frewsburg.

The 17-year-old was surprised by officers at the James Parker place at Bear Lake. He had been using the Parker car in his hold-ups and feared young Roy Parker was aware of his crimes.

FUNDS FOR WCDA. A sum of $4,269 for the Warren Co. Development Association's 1959 program is to be provided by The Pennsylvania Industrial Assistance Act. It is the second allocation of funds to the group, which in 1958 received over $4,000 to carry on its industrial development project. The money is matched with local funds contributed by businessmen.

This announcement was made at the annual meeting Monday when the following directors were also named to three-year terms: C. E. Anderson, Sugar Grove; Krug Cyphert, Tidioute; and Charles Tranter, Warren.

The board passed a resolution at the session recommending that the county commissioners approve a budget proposed by the new county Planning Commission so its work can begin in 1959.

THE RED CROSS annual drive for funds has started and your aid is urged to help this organization reach its 1959 goal of $28,128.

TO AID HANDICAPPED. Paul Steinkamp and about 10 local swim instructors will conduct eight Sunday afternoon swim classes for retarded and handicapped groups in the Jamestown Area. The program is being held at the Jamestown Boys Club under the auspices of the Chautauqua County Retarded Children's Assoc.

RINK TO OPEN. Anthony Pellegrino's new roller skating rink on the West Side of Warren is scheduled to open March 14.

DEADLINE for a Warren County citizen between the ages of 16 and 30 to make application in the Jaycee Community Ambassador pro-

Wards 1 And 2 Combined, Fifth Split By Court

A move, originally instigated by the Warren County Commissioners in August of 1955, became a reality Wednesday in a court order signed here by Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr.

The paper ordered the oversized Warren Borough Fifth Ward split, forming Ward 10, and the Second Ward incorporated as part of the First Ward. The new reassessment program held up the move in changing the voting districts until 1958, when the court asked for a reinvestigation of present change.

The Fifth Ward will now run from Jackson st. northward to the center of Pioneer st. The new Tenth Ward will commence there and continue on to the borough line. Nine voting precincts still remain, as the Second was merely abolished.

In his directive Judge Flick instructed that the councilmen now serving in the districts involved will continue in office until the end of this year. At the November election one will be chosen for a two year term and one for a four year term in each the Tenth, Fifth and First. In subsequent elections the terms will be for four years.

The order also resulted in appointments of election boards and constables for the remainder of the present term.

ject is March 13. Write Warren Jaycees Ambassador Project, Box 147, or contact David Swanson or Dan Goldthwaite.

FOR THE FIRST TIME a course in Russian will be conducted in Warren schools. The class, if 20 people or more show interest, will be held during night school. Those wanting to study the language should call 2461. Mr. Henninger has been engaged to instruct.

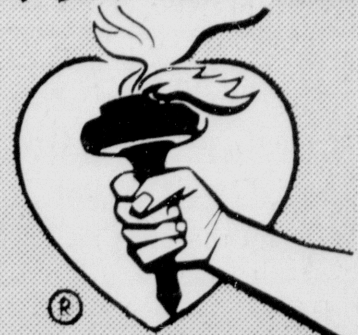

NINETEEN Warren firemen have completed two standard First Aid classes under the supervision of Everett J. Sailor and Eugene D. Brown.

VOTING MEMBERS of the Young Men's Christian Association are reminded that the nomination committee is prepared to receive nominations for the board of directors and the board of trustees for the year 1959-60. Rules governing nominations may be secured from a committee member or at the "Y" office.

STATE SCHOLARSHIP examinations will be held in Warren high school on Friday, April 3. There will be eight scholarships, each $200 per year for four years in any approved Pennsylvania college or university, to be awarded on the basis of this competitive examination. Local seniors wishing to compete should register with the guidance office.

Television and Radio

By John Crosby

(c) 1959 New York Herald Tribune Inc.

Costs are becoming an awful problem on television. Gads, I remember way back when the Milton Berle Show — the whole hour, including musicians, writers, chorus girls, guest stars, and Berle — came to $17,000 a week. Today you can hardly get the dog act for that. Today you can hardly get anything for $17,000 except prolonged commercials on daytime television.

Sure, television is graced by an occasional "Hamlet" or "For Whom the Bell Tolls." But increasingly, the specials and even the regulars like "Playhouse 90" are falling behind their budgets. Television more and more is in an era of deficit financing like government. Sometimes the deficits are fairly formidable, too. Eventually, they will be downright frightening.

Already "See It Now" has vanished, mostly though not solely because it was too expensive. The other serious operations on television — most of them anyway — are sustained by deficit financing that cannot go on forever. However, even apart from the shows that have disappeared altogether, like "See It Now," the rising problem of cost has cut the quality of television in less spectacular ways.

Already, a good many writers, including several who started in television, said they won't write for TV because TV can't afford them. That applies also to actors. To get a cast like that in "For Whom the Bell Tolls" you have to go way over your budget. If the best writers are unobtainable you must take lesser writers and get a lesser script.

All of which leads me to ask the question aloud that I have been asking myself for a long time: Can the advertisers afford television, which is what we are primarily concerned with here? Sure, the advertiser can afford to turn on the network and fill it almost uninterruptedly with commercials, as is now being done on daytime television. Or, it could fill the night time air with garbage — Westerns and parlor games.

But is this enough? It's not enough for me. I am increasingly in favor of pay television, because I think it is the only solution to the interesting problems. I have never been naive enough to suppose that pay TV would automatically open the flood gates to operas, symphonies, and really worthwhile things. Let's not delude ourselves with great expectations. There will be plenty of junk on pay TV, too.

But at least there will be plenty of money to put on decent dramas. Actors we got; writers we got; directors we got; and the creative energy of this country is at white heat. All we haven't got is money, at least on television we haven't. I would dearly love to see a top producer like Fred Coe given enough money to pull together all the elements he needs in writing and acting and then thrown into competition with the junk merchants at the box office. If it were a question of paying a quarter to see a "Playhouse 90" (or a top drawer two hour live drama), as against paying a quarter to see "I've Got a Secret," who do you suppose would win? And, you can't argue with the cash register. Ratings, I'm convinced, are hogwash, but you can't dismiss the cash register that lightly.

Television should be restored to the hands of the showmen instead of the advertisers. Again, this is not necessarily Nirvana. There have been some awfully shoddy, sensational, cheapjack showmen.

But at least the aim of any showman is to entertain, not simply to sell goods. Just the absence of commercials would add so much to some shows. Already good directors are driven out of their wits by inserting underarm deodorant advertisements in the middle of tender, dramatic scenes. When the under-arm commercials become the price of survival, then your serious writer and director leaves the medium altogether.

Why not pay TV? Well the chief cry against it is that it is un-American. Free broadcasting is the American tradition. But is any television really free? They add the cost of "As the World Turns" to the soap chips. And I don't even like "As the World Turns." I'm forced to pay for a program I don't want — and so are you. This isn't free TV; this is pay TV, and you don't have any control over what you're paying for.

I don't think sponsored television will disappear altogether, either. If you wanted to play "Concentration" or to watch Dick Clark's teen-agers dancing to rock 'n' roll music, or to see "Secret Storm," it would have to be on free television because no one in his right mind would pay to see those things.

I'm convinced that even quite popular shows on free TV would never make the switch to pay TV because people have a different set of values when they pay to see something. A concert by the Philharmonic would not attract an audience big enough to interest Proctor & Gamble, but it would sure attract a big enough one to interest Sol Hurok, whereas no one would pay ten cents to see "Name That Tune" — the rating notwithstanding.

Besides, all the arguments are going to pale eventually before the single over-riding argument of economics. If costs continue to mount, the advertisers won't be able to pay the bills and it will have to be pay TV.

Laws In Making

The Harrisburg gentlemen are in session again and the usual batch of laws is piling up. Everything from legalizing Bingo to protecting skunks in seventh class counties can be found. We mention this in time to allow all first, second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth class county skunks to get out of there.

Then there is the proposed law which would allow you to hunt on Sunday as long as you don't hunt for game. If that stops you for a moment, there remains vermin, crows, and humans.

Bingo would be allowed by a law which would permit charitable, patriotic or civic organizations to play this game if the proceeds were used for charitable, religious, patriotic, or civic purposes. (It seems to us that any condolence of gambling is to invite a fever which can carry over into other less desirable fields. Gambling either is good or bad. All should be allowed to do it in a controlled manner... or none.)

An amendment to the state constitution has been proposed which would exempt from personal taxes all over 65 who are receiving pensions or social security payments. Or those unemployed.

There are some assemblymen who think they don't work enough. They have introduced a bill calling for annual sessions.

Senate Bill 144 would prohibit real estate buying, selling, trading, exchanging, and construction on Sunday. (But it is all right to make a noise with a gun? Doesn't this come under the heading of interfering with religious freedom? Can you legislate conscience?)

The freedom of speech guard will not like this one. It would make it a crime to use obscene or profane language on the telephone.

Citizens charged with minor offenses will like the one which proposes to make it illegal to take fingerprints or photographs of persons charged with summary offenses or prosecuted privately.

Put a triple star in front of this one. Democrat Austin Murphy of Washington county has submitted House Bill 212 which would amend the Public Assistance Law of 1937 so as to provide that no recipient of public assistance as a condition for receiving assistance be required to convey or encumber his real property in favor of the Commonwealth, where such real property is used as the home of the recipient of assistance.

The bill also cancels such existing obligations. This puts a bit of the heart into public assistance which we long have advocated. A bow to Mr. Murphy.

All motorists over sixteen years of age would be prosecuted in the same manner as an adult under another proposed law.

Good health would be required of Pennsylvania drivers by another law which would make it necessary for all motorists to take a physical within the next three years. And from here on all applicants would do the same.

Country clubs would be excepted from the liquor law quota limitations under another bill. (But how about clubs in dry townships?)

Septic tanks and cesspools would have to be cleaned and such cleaning and the disposal of the waste would be regulated if another law goes through.

Bowling alleys could be operated on Sundays under local option according to another Harrisburg gem. (But why this pick on bowling alleys? People go golfing, fish, play ball, shoot guns, drive cars, play tennis, beat their wives, get drunk, beat their husbands, go to auto races, and do just about anything they want in the line of play on Sunday. Why shouldn't they join together in the pleasant surroundings of a bowling alley and have fun, many times as a family?)

A ten per cent increase in compensation for each dependent up to five would be paid to recipients of workmen's compensation or occupational disease payments under HB 230.

Fire insurance policies may include another exception if SB 120 goes through. The exception would eliminate damage by nuclear reaction, radiation, or radio-active contamination. (The cold war draws closer, and so does fall-out if the insurance companies are worried.)

SNOW AND COLD do not prevent Mrs. Bert Schreckengost, of Barnes, from producing lemons that far exceed in size and juice content the fruit raised in sunny Florida. This one weighs a pound and a half. Two grew on a small three-foot tree in her green house this winter. She also has an orange tree with thirty oranges ripening.

The fruit require much moisture, so much that other plants in the little greenhouse must be watched closely to prevent their receiving an excessive amount. Because there is no wind, pollination must be done by hand.

Mrs. Schreckengost even has used African violet pollen. It did not result in purple lemons.

Here's a tip for you who have trouble causing African violets to bloom. Do not use dirt from your garden. Obtain top soil from the woodlands, preferably on the eastern slope of a hill. And mix it with a bit of sand. If you must use garden soil, mix in sand to break it up. The roots need air.

Play Time

PLAY IS GOOD BUSINESS

When you tickle the pocketbook of many citizens for a mite of money to help provide recreational facilities they are inclined to see no value in young lungs filled with fresh air and muscles substituted for rolls of blubber. But open that purse for the purpose of caressing it with a deposit of fair size and they will purr songs of praise for recreation.

This is an angle to which the Warren county area must awaken, and it must do it very soon. The Kinzua dam, or some other form of water control, will be a reality in the next very few years, and no matter what you do to provide a steady flow of clean water, play time increases. And the quality of that play determines the dollars to be made.

In areas where they have had much experience in this field they have made studies of the money spent for play hours. The visitors divide their dollars as follows:

Food receives the biggest share, 36 cents. Autos, mostly gasoline, get 24 cents. Lodging accounts for 20 cents. Amusements receive 8 cents. The retail stores jingle 12 cents. These figures are taken from an area in which the kind of play is much the same as will result in this section. It was created by the construction of a dam similar to the one planned for the Allegheny.

In one season it attracted 327,000 sightseers and 200,000 visitors for swimming, boating, fishing, and picnicking.

Another study applicable to Warren county was made in a Pennsylvania section during the deer season. In a twelve-day period thirty thousand hunters were counted. They spent over one million dollars!

It was divided as follows: Gas, oil, and other auto expenses, $182,000; hunting supplies, $152,000; room and board, $483,000; beverages, $126,000, and miscellaneous, $71,000.

dam visitors and sightseers would be worth!

We already have the hunting for more than twelve days. And we have some fishing. Both can be increased and improved. This is especially true of fishing.

Add to that a positive program with facilities to match so that a full summer of boating, swimming, camping, cottaging, and all the rest is possible. The potential income is in the millions for Warren county alone.

Those interested in selling gasoline, equipment, food, and down the list, should be especially interested. But no matter who gets the original dollar, it will be spent locally and more will be coming in than going out, unlike so many attractions we bring to town. All of us should be alert to these possibilities and we should be spending a few paltry dollars very willingly to assure that we lure the best of visitors by offering the best of facilities.

This is known as planning, commissioners.

JAYCEES TRY

A few weeks back we mentioned that the Kremer tennis troupe might be a good attraction and a means of raising a few dollars. The Jaycee president, Bill Clinger, wasted no time. He contacted the tennis promoter and learned that a date might be available. However, there is no place in this county with sufficient seats.

The best was the Eisenhower gym, but it can seat only 1,000. The new Warren high school gym, which will seat 1500, might have been sufficient, but 2,000 would have been much better.

IT WAS ALL THERE

The most complete single article we ever have read concerning the heart of good basketball coaching appeared in the Saturday Evening Post last week. It was an interview with Henry P. Iba, Oklahoma State coach.

Iba emphasizes defense, an art which we claim too many high school coaches have forgotten exists. He points out examples of major games which can be seen every year in which teams that normally rack up tremendous scores keep the count down to such results as 45 to 35, or 55 to 40. The reason being that all of the leading coaches apply a tight defense when the encounter is the big one.

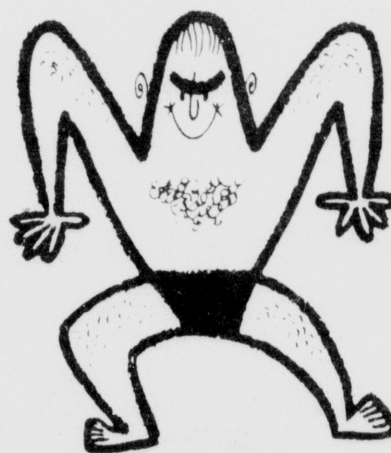

Iba also claims that those who say his teams slow down the game with ball control are mistaken. He claims the difference is that his boys keep the ball until they have the shot they want. They also place great emphasis on ball control insofar as not throwing it away carelessly.

They keep a record of bad passes and if the two men involved repeat the performance many times corrections are in order. You can't give the ball away and win.

We would like to add something to this. We doubt if high school boys can learn a wide variety of plays and carry them out efficiently. Given fundamentals and a basic form of attack to fit various situations, their natural ability will do the job.

The plays can be scouted . . . and are. And high school boys are not sufficiently flexible to adapt to changes in the opposition. If a man is not where he is supposed to be, what happens to their split-second play?

Many high school teams look better in December than they do in February. We suspect they are playing a more natural game in December, and we also suspect that the opposition has them scouted by February. The results do not do justice to the boys.

MURROW VACATIONS

Edward R. Murrow takes a year's vacation from CBS duties starting July 1. Mr. Murrow's contract contains a provision for leave of absence. In his own words of explanation he says, "any reporter or analyst should take a year off somewhere around the age of 50 and do a little contemplating and a lot of leisurely traveling and reading and listening and keep silent for a spell".

Murrow, who is 50, has been with CBS since 1935 and has contributed to television such top programs as "See It Now", "Person to Person", "Small World", plus a number of special documentaries. Arthur Godfrey will conduct the interviews on "Person to Person", during the 1959-60 season.

TELEVISION IN 1960

In a recent address to Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce, Robert W. Sarnoff, chairman of the board of NBC, gave some interesting forecasts of television's economic, social and technical character in 1960.

Highlights of the forecast predicted that, 1, it may be possible to earn most of a basic college education through courses offered on television; 2, nearly 70 million TV sets will be in 58 million American homes, and most of those sold in the next decade will be color sets; 3, miniature transistorized sets with three-inch picture tubes will be in common use on beaches, trains and planes; 4, thin, flat wall screens will be the hub of home communication centers; 5, live international telecasts will be an everyday reality.

CONTINENTAL CLASSROOM BOOMS

Rinehart & Co., publishers of "Atomic Age Physics", the textbook for the second semester of the course on "Continental Classroom", have announced some figures which indicate how closely the course is being viewed. In its first week of publication, the $2 book sold more than thirteen thousand copies, the next week started with an order of three thousand from the U. S. Navy and with no slackening in demand for copies, the publishers have rushed the book into its third printing.

Area viewers following the course in Comparative Literature on "Sunrise Semester" are handicapped as many of the books are not available at Warren county libraries or else in very limited supply, one or two copies per library.

NATIONWIDE STEREOPHONIC

The first network use of stereophonic sound will be demonstrated to a nationwide audience on the Perry Como Show Saturday night, Feb. 28, the experiment being scheduled for 8:15 to 8:45 p. m.

A special network of radio lines is being installed parallel to TV network routes and specially developed video tape will be used to permit delayed broadcasts in different time zones.

Listeners will be placing an AM or FM radio receiver about eight feet to the right of their TV sets to pick up the stereophonic signals. Try it for an exciting experience in sound.

WJAC TO CARRY CANCER PROGRAM

The NBC educational television program "Tactic", a series of six weekly shows, will be carried by WJAC, on a 32-day delayed basis, starting March 14. The programs are produced by the NBC network in cooperation with the Educational Television and Radio Center and the American Cancer Society.

The series seeks to examine the destructive disease of cancer with the objective of saving human lives by correcting harmful attitudes and providing helpful information.

CHANGES, SOONER OR LATER

BONANZA will be the title of a new hour-long Western which NBC will present next season. Three half-brothers (just for variety) operate their father's ranch and form the nucleus of action for the program.

CAPTAIN KANGAROO and Richard Hottelet will change time on CBS morning weekday schedule starting March 16. Hottelet will come on for the 8-8:15 period, followed by Capt. Kangaroo, 8:15-9 a. m.

GALE STORM SHOW switches from CBS to ABC early in April, the latter network having purchased 125 half-hour films which will be seen on a weekday basis at 2:30-3 p. m. Twenty-six new films are being readied for once-a-week showing.

BLUE MEN, a new series dealing with policemen, will replace the Gale Storm Show on CBS next June 6, Saturday evenings 9-9:30.

PLAY OF THE WEEK, a new Oldsmobile-sponsored series, begins Thursday, March 26 on NBC and will be placed in the 8:30-9 p. m. time slot now occupied by "It Could Be You". In the premiere show, Genevieve will star as an exchange student working in a mid-west library.

THE ALASKAN, is a new series being prepared by ABC. As one funster noted, "another western, this one wearing snowshoes".

THIS IS SHOW BUSINESS, another ABC series venture, will have Dick Clark as host and will probably be scheduled in the Thursday 9:30 p. m. period.

THE LAWLESS YEARS, the story of a real-life detective who tackled the underworld kingpins of the Roaring Twenties, will debut on NBC Sunday, April 5, 8:30-9 p. m. The authentic atmosphere of the Twenties will be captured in this series.

TRAILBLAZERS is the tentative title of a weekly, half-hour series being prepared for next fall. Boy Scouts of America have approved the adult adventure series which dramatizes the history and deeds of boys and men in the Scouting movement.

BENNY GOODMAN and His Band will head the cast of "Swing Into Spring", a musical special to be presented by CBS Friday, April 10.

PETE KELLY'S BLUES, at 8-8:30 p. m. and "The Jimmie Rodgers Show, 8:30-9 p. m., will fill the spot on NBC's Tuesday night schedule, starting March 31. The two new series replace the Gobel and Fisher shows.

20TH CENTURY, at 6:30 on WBN, will bring Part I of "Generation Without a Cause", which will be entitled "Self Portrait". ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS

The Lord wants us to have many of the wonderful things of heaven while we walk this narrow vale called the earth.

In reality, don't both heaven and hell have their beginnings on this earth? Doesn't hell begin here? Doesn't heaven begin here? Isn't it true that some people feel they are living in hell right now? And aren't there people who feel they are living in heaven right now?

It is wonderful to think about heaven when we realize that heaven begins right here on earth.

Do miracles have to be performed in heaven, or may we expect miracles to be performed down here?

Often we are asked that, and it is like asking, "Is God good only in heaven?"

Can anyone think of a single need in heaven? Can anyone explain why a miracle would ever be needed in heaven? Is Paul there now asking Jesus to give him a miracle?

In heaven there is no need, for all need is already supplied. It is on earth that need exists.

Actually, what do we expect God to do in heaven that we don't expect him to do on earth? We expect him to save our souls completely, but we expect it here before we enter heaven.

In fact, we will never get to heaven if the miracle of salvation isn't performed for us on earth.

We expect God to heal our bodies when we get to heaven, but there we shall have perfect, resurrected bodies which will not need healing. It is now that our bodies need healing. We need to ask for healing here. Isn't that right?

When we get to heaven we shall not need to ask God for a miracle to change our circumstances, for there we shall not need a change of circumstances. Everything will be perfect always. It is down here that our circumstances need changing. It is upon this earth that we must make miracles take place.

Christ, who came to show us what God is like, did not say that we should wait until we get to heaven before asking for miracles. He performed miracles wherever he went, and he is still doing so today in response to the prayer of faith. Christ brought heaven within reach of the earth.

In the Book of Psalms it is written, "They that seek the Lord shall not lack any good thing." Isn't that bringing to earth a touch of heaven? Isn't that the beginning of heaven itself?

The Child's Natural Mother

(The first of a series of three articles prepared by the Family Service and Children's Aid Society on ADOPTION)

This series of articles has been prepared in order to acquaint the people of Warren County with the many services given by the Family Service and Children's Aid Society in the field of Adoption.

Many different people are involved when a child is placed for adoption - the child, himself, the adoptive parents, and the natural parents. All of these people have very special needs which require careful consideration. Although the welfare of the child is at all times the most important concern, agencies who place children in adoptive homes must think in terms of all the people who have a stake in the adoption and not merely of finding a home for an unwanted child.

Most children available for adoption are the result of illegitimate births; therefore, one of the areas that must concern the adoption agency is the unmarried mother. The Family Service and Children's Aid Society is the only fully-approved agency in Warren County with a staff trained to give casework help to these unmarried mothers.

If a single girl discovers that she is pregnant, she may come to the agency for help in planning for the future of her baby and herself. All interviews are strictly private and confidential. She may talk with a trained caseworker who has the necessary experience to help girls with these special problems. All plans are made to best suit her individual needs - there are no set procedures, and the arrangements made are those that the girl prefers. Many times a girl wants to remain at home for her confinement, or proper arrangements can be made by a staff member for her in a maternity hospital out-of-town.

While arrangements are made for physical care, the caseworker and the mother are also planning for the future lives of mother and baby. Much careful thought and consideration are given to the problem of whether or not to keep the child or place it for adoption. In some cases, the mother decides to keep her child, but often the mother decides that adoption placement for her child will be best for the baby and for herself.

Arrangements are then made for her child to the agency. This is a legal action which makes it possible for the agency then to consent to the adoption of the child. Only agencies approved by the State Department of Welfare may arrange for voluntary relinquishments. These relinquishments are legal protection for all parties to an adoption. The Family Service and Children's Aid Society is the only agency in Warren County approved by the State Department of Welfare that may use this Voluntary Relinquishment provision of the law.

If the natural mother has decided to place her child, she is then immediately freed of responsibility for her child and can begin to make plans of her own, even though the legal adoption of the child has not been completed. The adoptive parents can have peace of mind, for they then have a guarantee that the natural mother will not reverse her decision before the adoption is completed. The child is protected by the assurance of good care until it is placed in an adoptive home.

The family Service and Children's Aid Society is the only approved private agency in Warren County with trained workers equipped to deal with problems of unmarried mothers. Because these mothers are given all possible help in solving their own personal problems, adoption placements of their children are secure, successful and happy.

The second article in this series considers the adoptive parents and the services and counseling provided to them by the Family Service and Children's Aid Society of Warren County.

MATMEN FINISH UNBEATEN

Warren High School wrestlers wrapped up their second undefeated campaign in the 11 year history of the sport at WHS when they downed the Titusville grapplers, 22 to 13, at Titusville last Thursday night. The victory was the ninth of a nine match season for Coach Hal Miller's wrestlers.

The Dragon matmen wrestled to six decision wins and two draws in the 11 matches to earn their undefeated status.

During the 1958-59 season, 18 different boys participated in interscholastic competition with the WHS wrestling team. Three of the varsity grapplers were unbeaten during the campaign. They were Bob Long, 133 lb., and John Colvin, 138 lb., who went through nine matches without a defeat, and Gail Page, 120 lb., who wrestled eight times without a loss.

BULLDOGS BITE DRAGONS

The Meadville Bulldogs whipped the Warren, Dragons, 62 to 50, at Meadville last Friday night to erase all hopes that the Blue and White cagers might clinch their first Section II, District 10 basketball crown in many years.

Warren's outside shooting left much to be desired during the game and the Meadville defense jammed the area around the basket to keep the Dragons on the outside from where their scoring punch was impotent.

Nicky Creola, the only WHS cager to hit the basket more than twice from the floor, led the Dragons with 21.

The loss dropped the Dragons to fourth place in the Section II standings with a record of 5 and 4.

Their season record going into their finale against Franklin on Beaty gym tomorrow night is 14 wins and 6 losses. But 10 of those victories were notched in the first 10 games of the season. During their second 10 games, the skidding Dragons have won 4 and dropped 6.

AREA CAGE RESULTS WEEKEND

SECTION II, DISTRICT 10 -- Meadville whipped WARREN, 62 to 50, Corry surprised Oil City, 75 to 70, and Titusville ripped Franklin, 64 to 53.

The program was announced by Bob Lind, Youngsville, the county president.

REVOLVER LEAGUE SHOTS

Members of the Warren Revolver League will meet at the Court House this Saturday, February 28, to attend the five club shoot in Dubois.

Top guns at the session last Monday were Class A, Mong, 272, Schmatz, 257, and Worley, 247; Class B, Mack, 265, Frederick, 237, and Bielowski, 232; Class C, Lundberg, 234, McIntosh, 234, Klinestiver, 233, Kittner, 212, and Parr, 212.

FOUR WRESTLERS ADVANCE

Titusville nosed out Warren for the team championship in the Sec-II, District 10 wrestling tournament at Franklin last Saturday but four WHS wrestlers copped Section II championships in their weight class and will return to Franklin this Saturday, February 28, to compete with winners of the Section III tournament. Individual winners of Saturday's Sections II and III match will compete in Erie against the Section I winners on Saturday, March 7, for District 10 honors.

Titusville scored 28 team points to beat the Dragons, defending Section II, District 10 wrestling champions, who garnered 23 points. They were followed by Oil City, 20, Franklin, 18, and Corry, 7.

The quarter of Blue and White Sectional title holders are Max Claypool, 88 lb., Dean Lester, 95 lb., Gail Page, 120 lb., and Jim Olson, 185 lb.

ATTEMPTS ROBBERY. Elvin A. Stewart, age 43, of 9 Mohawk ave., Warren, is in Warren County jail awaiting court after his attempt to hold up the Epstein store in downtown Warren with a cap pistol last Friday afternoon.

He pleaded guilty to a charge of attempted robbery, but failed to produce $1,000 cash bail or $2,000 property bond.

Stewart walked into the 400 Block establishment shortly after 2 o'clock Friday and, according to witnesses, pulled a red handkerchief over his mouth and nose. He threatened one of the owners that he would shoot and attempted to force him to the rear of the store.

Joseph Epstein suddenly struck the man in the head, dropping him to the floor. Two brothers, Sam and Harold, along with a utility meter man, Jack Sautter, who was in the store, held Stewart on the floor. The men removed the alleged gun from the man's pocket, finding out it was only a toy. Police were then summoned.

Stewart's auto, with a license plate taken from a junk yard attached over the proper one, had been left running outside the store.

WHS Wrestlers Reach Top In Short Period

By Den Hedges

Two undefeated seasons and one Section II championship. These are three of the accomplishments of Warren High School wrestlers in the short span the mat sport has been included in the sports program at WHS.

The Blue and White grapplers concluded their second undefeated season last Thursday night and last Saturday they finished in second place in the Section II wrestling tournament as they came out of the day-long session with four Section II wrestling champions.

Since wrestling was added to the Warren High School interscholastic sports program during the 1948-49 season, 11 years ago, Blue and White matmen have won 56 dual matches, lost 38 and tied 2. They won their first Section II, District 10 wrestling crown last year.

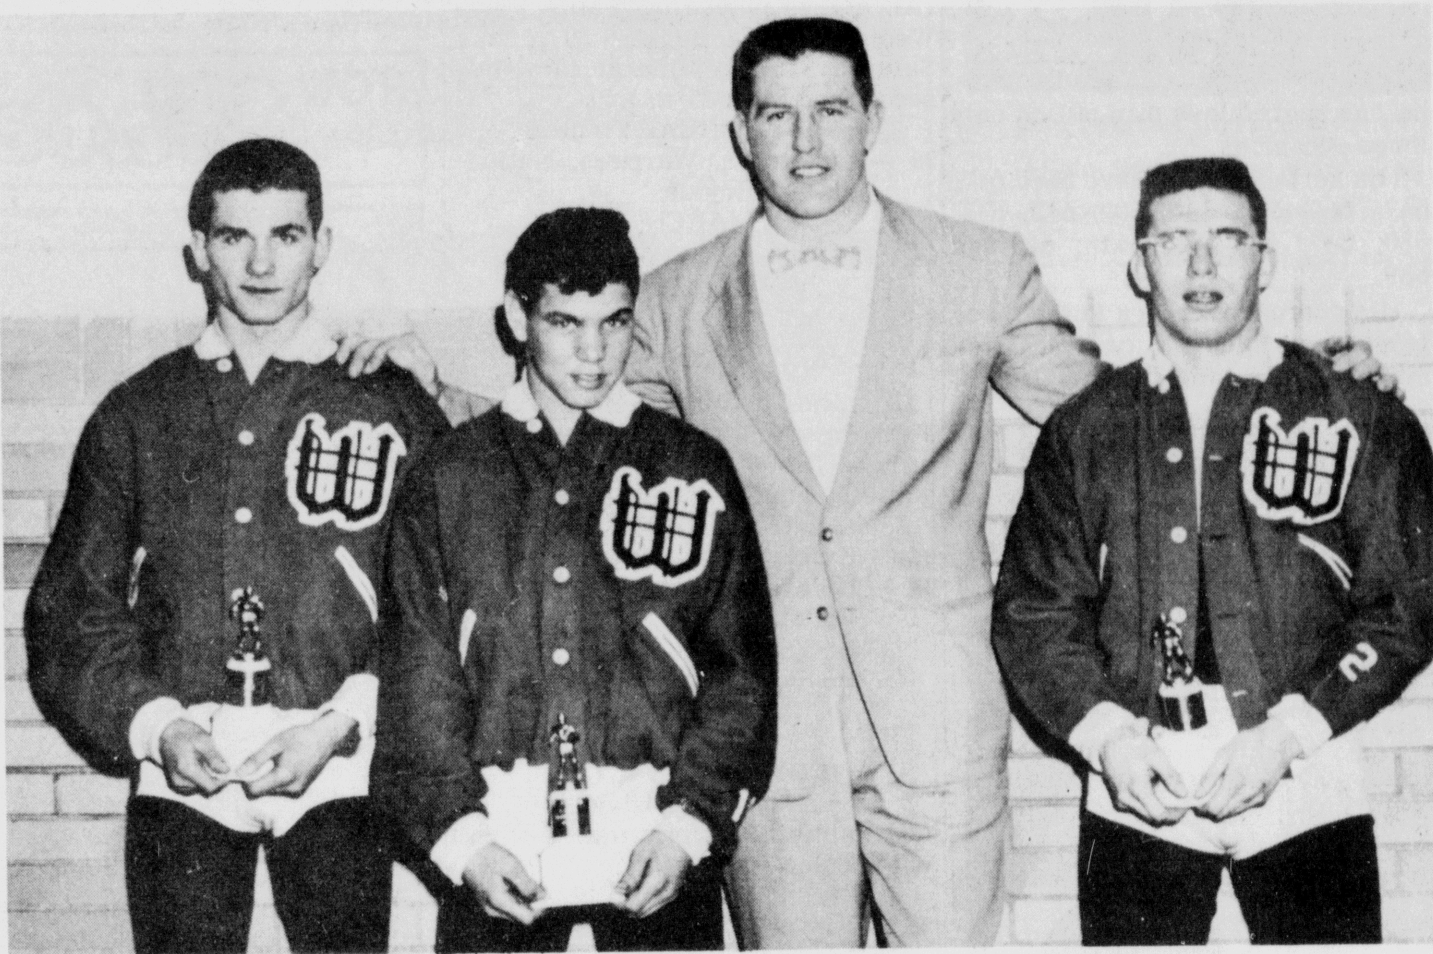

Although winless in four dual matches their first season, WHS grapplers, have won more matches than they have lost in seven of their last eight seasons. During the 1952-53 season, the wrestlers won 4 and lost 4. Two of the seasons were undefeated campaigns, 1953-54 and this past season, 1958-59.

Three appears to be the magic number for WHS wrestling coaches. Two of the three coaches since the sport was added to the sports program in the 1948-49 season have coached their squads to an undefeated record in their third year at the helm of the WHS matmen.

Present coach Hal Miller, a former University of Pittsburgh grappler, saw his charges whip Titusville last Thursday to remain unbeaten through nine dual meets in this, his third year as wrestling coach in Warren. In his three season span as wrestling coach since 1956, Warren matmen have won 22 and lost 6.

Homer Barr, a NCAA wrestling champion at Penn State and now wrestling mentor at State College Area High School, coached Dragon matmen to a perfect 10 and 0 record during the 1953-54 campaign. That season was the Clearfield-born coach's third season with the Dragon grapplers. During the five years he coached the Warren wrestlers, from 1951 to 1956, his teams won 31, lost 14 and tied 2.

Wrestling started as a varsity sport at Warren High School during the 1948-49 season when Robert Jewell took charge of a handful of lads with no previous wrestling experience. During the first season, those boys were winless in four dual matches. And during the next two seasons with Mr. Jewell coaching them, Dragon wrestlers notched records of 2 wins and 7 losses and 1 win and 7 setbacks as they gained the experience needed to achieve their pair of undefeated seasons and Section II, District 10 wrestling championship in the winning seasons since that time.

Titusville won the team honors with 28 points, while Warren settled for second with 23.

BEHIND THE SCENES. A great deal of credit goes to the boys on this year's undefeated Warren high wrestling team, but plenty of support also comes from behind the scenes. These men (l. to r.) helped in a big way in offering that support: Hal Miller, wrestling coach; Joe Massa, director of athletics; Wally Jewell, assistant coach; and Joseph Pasero, former assistant grid coach and now high school principal.

WAS IT COLD? YES! This Friday morning scene looks cold and tells everybit the truth. The temperatures Friday dipped well below zero and not only nipped the ears, but rapidly formed slush on the Allegheny. A blanket of snow accompanied the cold weather.

THESE COTTAGES PICTURED are along the Allegheny River on the back road between Irvine and Tidioute, a place the Observer camera did not reach after the January 22 flood.

While most seemed to have withstood the huge cakes of ice and high waters, a certain amount of damage was obvious.

TREACHEROUS is the drive along the river between Irvine and Tidioute. The road is narrow and most guard rails either are not or are ready not to be. The logs placed partially across the road here are covering a big hold that could wreck any moving vehicle.
